

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

A241.25
F312

UNITED STATES
DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
LIBRARY

BOOK NUMBER A241.25
931906 F312

Federal Extension Service
USDARECEIVED
April 13, 1957
OCT 1-1957

HOW RESEARCH FINDINGS ARE DISTRIBUTED

1. REVIEW OF EXTENSION RESEARCH - Issued annually. Last issue - Extension Service Circular No. 506 - May 1955 - Lucinda Crile. (1956 issue now in process of publication).

DISTRIBUTION: A copy of each issue of this circular is sent to each State extension director; State leader in county agricultural, home demonstration, and 4-H Club work; State leader of extension studies; extension editor; agricultural college library, and experiment station library; one subject matter specialist in each project; and to a special mailing list of selected individuals, libraries and organizations. Any other person listed in the author index on the inside of the back cover is also sent a copy of the issue in which his name is listed.

2. BIBLIOGRAPHY ON EXTENSION RESEARCH - Issued in 5-year intervals. Last issue Extension Service Circular 489 - 1955. Lucinda Crile.

DISTRIBUTION: A copy of this circular has been sent to each State extension director; State leader in county agricultural, home demonstration, and 4-H Club work; State leader of extension studies; extension editor; agricultural college library, and experiment station library; to one subject-matter specialist in each project; and to a special mailing list of selected individuals, libraries, and organizations.

3. AUTHOR INDEX to Digests in Review of Extension Research - Extension Service Circular No. 508 - April 1956. Lucinda Crile.

DISTRIBUTION: A copy of this circular has been sent to each State extension director; State leader in county agricultural, home demonstration, and 4-H Club work; State leader of extension studies; extension editor; agricultural college and experiment station libraries; one subject-matter specialist in each project; and to a special mailing list of selected individuals, libraries, and organizations, all of whom receive the Review of Extension Research regularly.

4. EXTENSION PUBLICATIONS, on a compilation of studies prepared by Lucinda Crile. Examples:

- a. SOME FINDINGS FROM TELEVISION STUDIES. Extension Service Circular 490, 1953.

DISTRIBUTION: A copy of this circular has been sent to each State extension director; State leader in county agricultural, home demonstration, and 4-H Club work; State leader of extension studies; extension editor; agricultural college library; and experiment station library.

- b. SOME FINDINGS FROM RADIO RESEARCH. Extension Service Circular 503. Nov. 1955.

DISTRIBUTION: A copy of this circular has been sent to each State extension director; State leader in county agricultural, home demonstration, and 4-H Club work; State leader of extension studies; extension editor; agricultural college library; and experiment station library.

List prepared for presentation to a subcommittee, appointed by the Organization and Policy Committee, to explore the need of a Journal of Extension Research.
ER&T-130(4-57)

c. FINDINGS FROM RESEARCH ON MEETINGS - April 1956. Extension Service Circular 507.

DISTRIBUTION: A copy of this circular has been sent to each State leader in county agricultural, home demonstration, and 4-H Club work; State leader of extension studies; and agricultural college library.

5. INDIVIDUAL STUDIES, such as:

HOW CONSUMERS GOT INFORMATION IN LOUISVILLE. Dr. Matthews and others. Extension Service Circular 499 - June 1955.

FOOD BUYING HABITS OF FAMILIES IN LOUISVILLE. Dr. Matthews and others. Extension Service Circular 501 - December 1955.

BETTER INFORMED CONSUMERS. Extension Service Circular 502. December 1955.

DISTRIBUTION: Copies of these circulars have been sent to each State extension director, editor, economist, and home economist concerned with consumer marketing information work; land-grant college and experiment station library; and to others interested in consumer programs.

Distribution of individual studies is determined by the authors.

6. CURRENT RESEARCH DEVELOPMENTS. Research newsletter issued quarterly by Division of ER&T.

DISTRIBUTION: A copy of this letter is sent to State extension directors and State leaders of studies.

7. CURRENT INFORMATION DEVELOPMENTS. Weekly newsletter written by Les Schlup, Director of Division of Information Programs.

This letter includes reports of "Information Studies" giving a few significant findings and indicating implication of findings to extension workers.

8. CURRENT DEVELOPMENTS. Weekly newsletter written by Mr. Ferguson. This letter reports extension studies of general nature, administration or supervision.

DISTRIBUTION: Extension directors and extention editors.

9. RESEARCH SUMMARIES.

Examples: Research summaries of studies on administration. These were prepared by members of Division of ER&T under the direction of Dr. Matthews for the Administration Workshop in Wisconsin. ER&T emblem is used.

10. TRAINING LEAFLETS.

Training leaflets in 4-H Club work based on 4-H Club studies prepared by 4-H Club staff members and Mrs. Sabrosky.

DISTRIBUTION: Varies, usually all 4-H Club extension workers.

11. EXTENSION SERVICE REVIEW.

Reports of extension studies given in a special issue each year and articles regarding studies or use of studies are scattered through issues.

11.

